

Advice from a Pencil

You will be able to do many great things, but only if you allow yourself to be held in someone's hand.

You will experience a painful sharpening from time to time, but you'll need it to become a better pencil.

You will be able to correct any mistakes you might make no matter how big or small.

The most important part of you will always be what's on the inside.

You must leave your mark. No matter what the condition, you must continue to write.
